and Others—Police Guard Criminal Court Building.

A report emanated from the grand jury room that a great many of the police captains had deserted Healey and would make a clean breast of all secret orders received from their superior.

Chicago's most sensational crime inquiry began today when the grand jury called Mayor Thompson as a witness. With his appearance the city-wide probe of the charge that vice and gambling were running wild with the approval of Chief Chas. C. Healey grew deeper.

State's Att'y Hoyne believes that as a result of the investigation Chief Healey will be indicted. He also says there will be hit. He refused to name the others, but said that Wm. Luthardt, sec'y to Healey, would not
